

Thoughts for All

About the author: John Stephen Vaughan (1853 – 1925) was an English Roman Catholic bishop. From inside the book: In Thoughts for All Times the student will find a flood of Light illuminating the principles of his theology; the priest and the catechist will find new mines of material, rich in illustration; parents will find much needed help in the arduous task of detaching the minds of their children from the things of this earth and directing them towards the affairs of heaven. From this book all will learn more clearly the meaning of the encouraging words of the apostle: You have not received the spirit of bondage again in fear; but you have received the spirit of adoption of sons, whereby we cry: Abba, (Father). This book published in 1913 has been reformatted for the Kindle and may contain an occasional defect from the original publication or from the reformatting.
