

Looking at Life Through My New Bifocals: Focusing on Gods Purpose for the Second Half of Life

You'll laugh out loud at this collection of lighthearted devotionals from the humor-filled pen of Jerry Brecheisen. From aging gracefully to grandparenting, Jerry gently treats the topics that are sneaking up on all of us and offers the encouraging reminder that God has much more in store. With over seven thousand people turning sixty each day this year, this message of purpose and passion couldn't be more timely. While the second half of life may bring more than a few challenges, Jerry has discovered--and thinks you'll agree--that life just keeps getting better.
