

Heavenly Devotions

Even in the deepest darkness that has ever existed, God was there! This is as true today in our lives as it was before He created everything that is! We are not alone! God has not left us destitute and we are not left to wander in darkness. God has provided us with the true Light, his Son, Christ Jesus, and we are free to worship him and to extol his greatness. We are also free to enjoy the celestial wonders that he has created. This book searches the scriptures for passages that talk about creation, and in particular, the heavens. Passages are paired with imagery taken from NASA archives. The images capture our imagination and we are awe-struck by them. His Word reveals how His majesty exceeds these awesome structures.
