

The recent trend is towards environmentally friendly inhibitors. Most of the natural products are non-toxic, biodegradable and readily available in plenty. These advantages have incited us to draw a large part of program of our laboratory to examine natural substances as corrosion inhibitors. We will, therefore, concentrate our discussion in this work on the different interesting papers published by our research group in several international journals

The Words of Jesus (Classic Reprint), Bengal School of Astronomy, Lost in Transition, Second Edition, Devanees Book of Dwarf Planets, for giving, The Journal of Science, and Annals of Astronomy, Biology, Geology, Industrial Arts, Manufactures, and Technology, Volume 21, Bioorganic, Bioinorganic and Supramolecular Chemistry, El mundo de los exploradores / The Best-Ever Book of Exploration (Spanish Edition),
