

Winning the Battle Behind Closed Doors: Defeating Masturbation and Sexual Addictions

For many decades the subject of masturbation has been a no-go area in public discussions and publishing. The reasons are obvious. One is that, masturbation is not specifically mentioned in the Bible. Therefore the true position of God has been hard to ascertain. The church's silence on the subject matter has created a conducive atmosphere for its proliferation. The only hope until now has been the conscience of the few Christians that refused to join the confused silence. The conscience of masturbators, however, has never been silent. It has refused to excuse the act, but has persistently accused and condemned it in the minds and hearts of victims. It has been God's voice in the wilderness. This book therefore joins and assists the conscience, not to condemn this time, but to explain in details why the conscience will never support and excuse the act. It also brings to light, at last, the Bible's position on the matter. Winning the Battle provides God's truth to those struggling with masturbation and similar sexual vices. This book delves into the stories of those who have been freed, taking you through their journeys from bondage to freedom.
