

Moving Beyond the Offense: Living Without Animosity

LORENZO T. BROWN is the Founder of Is-Able Ministries, located in Birmingham, Alabama. He is a devoted husband and loving father. Lorenzo is a sought after inspirational speaker. His purpose is to inspire and encourage others to reach their full potential despite their circumstances. Learn more at www.isable.org At the age of 17 Lorenzo was shot and left paralyzed from his chest down to his feet. The men involved in the shooting were not convicted. Years after the shooting, Lorenzo came face-to-face with both men, looked them in the eye, gave them a hug and told them that he forgives them. In Moving Beyond The Offense he shares his amazing journey of forgiveness toward the men involved in the shooting, his parents, family, friends, and God in the hopes that all who are living in bondage to unforgiveness will be set free! Forgiveness is one of the most liberating and fulfilling deeds in the world. Unforgiveness possibly holds more people in bondage than anything else. Holding unforgiveness in our hearts damages us more than the other person. There is a misconception that if we forgive the person who hurt us, we are somehow doing them a favor, but forgiveness is not for the other person; forgiveness is for us. Forgiving someone who has offended us is a very difficult thing to do, but it is one of the most liberating and fulfilling deeds in the world. Forgiveness sets us free to live life without the bondage of anger, bitterness, hatred and resentment. We can only move as far as the offense will allow us. Without forgiveness we are stuck! An apology is not necessary in order to forgive; forgive them even if they do not apologize. Pursuing revenge will only lead to more destruction in your life and the lives of others. Forgiveness does not need to be earned before it can be given.
