

Filled With All the Fullness of God

For this reason I kneel before the Father, from whom every family in heaven and on earth derives its name. I pray that out of his glorious riches he may strengthen you with power through his Spirit in your inner being, so that Christ may dwell in your hearts through faith. And I pray that you, being rooted and established in love, may have power, together with all the Lords holy people, to grasp how wide and long and high and deep is the love of Christ, and to know this love that surpasses knowledge that you may be filled to the measure of all the fullness of God. (Ephesians 3:14-19) The passage above shows that while the Christians at Ephesus already had the Spirit of God in their inner being, they were exhorted to press forward in Christ until they were filled to the measure of all the fullness of God. I believe the implication here is that the baptism with the Holy Spirit should be the beginning of a progressive enlargement of the Spirit. We who have been baptized with the Spirit may tend to regard the baptism as a final work, with the next stop being Heaven. Do you find this to be true in your experience in the Christian churches? If it is true, perhaps we should give some thought to the passage above. Maybe there is more of God for us. I read in the third chapter of the Book of Philippians that the Apostle Paul was pressing forward to grasp that for which he had been grasped by the Lord Jesus.
