

I Want To Make A Difference Now

Your Bridge to Global Impact You want your life to count to leave a legacy to make a difference. For many of us that desire becomes an elusive dream, obscured by the urgency of life's demands. The great strength of this book is the refreshing message that those demands are actually the building blocks of significance. To make a difference our lives need substance and experience. The daily grind, the ups and downs, the successes and failures all work together to form the maturity and wisdom needed to make an eternal impact with our lives. And every chapter in this book is strengthened with the real-life stories of people who are making a difference now! Read this book if you are in your 20s or 30s to embrace life's demands and build character. Read this book if you are in your 40s, 50s or 60s to chart your next steps in making a global impact!
