

This book is a compilation of 366 religious poems written with the soul purpose of bringing insight to all who are seeking Jesus Christ, or who have a relationship with Him already and just want to read of His Heavenly Father and the Holy Spirits virtues in verse. The poems herein are written by Dennis Wright. All of them were written over a period of 14 years which has been my wives and my walk in search of the truth. We have tried many different churches and found many people with many different agendas. I married my wife who was a single mother of nine and we decided to raise the children in church and thus was the journey. The Church of Jesus Christ Of Latter Day Saints is the only place where the obstacles that we had encountered so frequently do not appear in the body of believers. My Mormon brothers and sisters have a genuine sincerity to do the right thing for Jesus and each other. There is no basket passed in the services and there are none on any payroll in the entire Church. I do tithe but it is out of my choice to do so and it has never been commented on. These poems are written with the help of the Holy Spirit for they simply fall out of me. I gain insight and then the power to emote comes from Him. I know that I was a poet in the pre-life because some of these things written about I have no experience with. If you read the book you will understand. Relax and enjoy.
