

The Last Sin: There is none righteous

The Last Sin: Based on true African events of 2013. When a christian BBC reporter decides to go to Sierra Leone to help decipher the true revelations of hell emanating from the quarterback third world country, it was with two motives. One, to separate religion from the state. Two, to establish the precis of the reality of that eternal place... hell fire. But when his line of investigation cuts across the sin of a Nigerian woman- Eni Jacobs, caught in the act of adultery with the bishop of her fathers ministry, Smith Abernathys mission is now set to change. And the revelations that followed next were bloodcurdling: The glut of moral perverseness in the Nigerian churches, the frivolities, immoral dressings in the name of liberality and the sly of merchandise in tithes and offerings. Besides, Smith must help Eni Jacobs get through this for a price... her heart. But what happens next when their romance begins to tilt in that fearful zone... The Last Sin. His fear of hell and the shocking revelation that the hideous sect- The Illuminati is after all the curator of the glut of immorality pervading the world today... the glut of pornography.
