No wonder the tea bushes didnt grow!When Nigel Owen and Flick Adamsthe new director and curator of The Royal Tunbridge Wells Tea Museumdug up two stunted tea bushes in the museums garden, the last thing they expected to find was the body of Englands most famous missing person.Etienne Makepeace, Englands renowned Tea Sage, disappeared forty years ago without a trace. But there he lies, in a shallow grave, and every policeman and reporter in the British Isles wants to know why.So does the stodgy manager of the stodgy English bank thats about to fund the museums acquisition of a major collection of antiquities. Hes ready to pull the plug on the deal.Flick and Nigel have no choice. To save their beloved museum, they must learn the secret of Makepeaces disappearancefirst! Their investigation takes them back to the 1960s and reveals what even the spymasters of Her Majestys Secret Service dont know: Etienne Makepeace brewed more trouble than tea during the Cold War.
