

Markings/My Own: Musings On The Gospel Of Mark

Neither commentary nor traditional meditations, Eby's Markings are a spiritual memoir. His musings on 70 episodes or texts in the Gospel of Mark blend intellectual inquiry with confessional worship. They meld poignancy, whimsy, grit, doubt, sorrow, and inspiration. Anyone attending to the care of her or his soul will find nurture here. Imagine overhearing an honest exchange between a middle-aged man and the biblical book of Mark. Many details of Omar Eby's life--the literature he has taught, hymns he loves, adventures and struggles he recalls, friends, family, and students--find voice in these rich and eclectic devotional meditations. Personal, immediate, searching, and often surprising, the pleasures of this text are the pleasures of eaves dropping on intelligent, soulful conversations. -Julia Kasdorf, Author of The Sleeping Preaching and of Fixing Tradition: Joseph W. Yoder, Amish American
